2023 Price County Land Auction

General Information:

Price County obtained most of the parcels in this auction through tax foreclosure proceedings. Price County normally acquires clear title to such parcels, but some parcels may be subject to easements, mineral rights, reservations, adverse possession claims, or occasionally, other liens or encumbrances. Conveyance of parcels is by quit claim deed.

Each parcel has an appraised value of the property established by the Price County Land Use and UW-Extension Committee. It is identified in this booklet as the minimum bid. As per § 75.69 Wis. Stats., every bid less than the appraised value shall be rejected in the first attempt to sell tax delinquent real estate. Price County reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids for a specific parcel being sold in this auction.

Neither Price County nor the auctioneers give any type of warranty or guarantee, expressed or implied, and all property is being sold “as is”. Although obtained from sources deemed reliable, all measurements, sizes or amounts stated in this booklet, on the Wisconsin Surplus Online Auction website, or any other auction material are approximate. Applicable building, land use, or zoning restrictions are provided only to assist buyers in their investigation of the property. Buyers should inspect the condition of the property and explore all applicable regulations prior to sale. Questions about parcels should be directed to Price County Zoning Administrator, Evan Lund. Questions can be sent via email to zoneadm@co.price.wi.us.
